USHERS' BENEFIT.

SIRES AND SONS. John G. Milburn, who at present lives in New York, has sold his Buffalo residence in which President McKinley dled Sept. 14, 1901, to Philip Mark Shannon of Buffalo, Representative James A. Tawney of Minnesota, chairman of the house committee on appropriations, was once the village blacksmith of Mount Pleasant township, near Gettysburg, Pa.

George Croal, ninety-five years old, is Edinburgh's oldest musician and enjoys the distinction of having been present at the dinner at which Scott avowed the authorship of his novels. Sherburn Frill Becker, the new thirty-year-old mayor of Milwaukee, is familiarly known as "Sherble." After leaving Harvard be traveled around the world twice and then returned home to enter politics. Alva J. Niles, recently appointed adjutant general of the Oklahoma national guard, has the distinction of being the youngest adjutant general in the United States, being but twenty-six years old. He is a Spanish-American war veteran. Charles J. Greene, the Omaha lawyer and orator who announced recently his candidacy for the United States esenate to succeed Mr. Millard, is a New Yorker by birth and was educated in Illinois. He served through the civil war and has been practicing law since Frederick W. Whitridge, who has been named by President Roosevelt to represent this country at the wedding of King Alfonso, is the first officially appointed representative of this country at a wedding of a European sovereign since 1878, when the father of King Alfonso was married. Jan Kubelik's first ambition was not to make a name as a musician, but as in explorer. Hearing much of Dr. Livingstone as a child, he was fired with a desire to emulate that great man, but long before he was out of the knickerbocker stage he showed such marvelous talents with the violin that a life of travel was out of the question

Rather than let his fortune remain of no use to the world and with no wife or relatives who needed it. John F. Powell, a carpenter of Des Moines, always believed to be in poor circumstances, has given $5,000 to Drake university, with which to help found the $50,000 Carnegle library. The gift was made secretly by Powell, who is a day laborer.

GLEANINGS.

The daily average of gold output of the Rand mines is about 14,500 ounces. It is stated that at least 20,000 square miles in Liberia are covered with dense rubber tree forests. It is urged by the Liverpool Underwriters' association that the Suez canal be doubled in breadth or else that an entirely new canal be built. Dry saited salmon is much used in Japan for New Year's presents. After New Year's the demand lessens, and prices decline 20 to 30 per cent.

In the capital of Belglum a prize was offered recently for the best pairlotic songs for the use of Belgium school children. A Frenchman won it.

Taking advantage of the present hard times in Russia, a large number of dealers in brie-a-brac and antique furniture are busy in that country visiting the homes of the nobility and making bargain purchases.

Altogether German is nowadays spoken by about 75,000,000 people. German thus ranks third in number among the four leading languages of Europe, the first being English, the second Russian and the fourth French.

WEATHER PREDICTIONS.

Professor Moore says he can predict weather six weeks in advance. So can any one. But will the predictions be fulfilled?-New York Herald. The weather bureau has announced that it will begin foretelling the weather a whole month ahead as soon as it has strengthened its guessing department.-Detroit Free Press.

POLITICAL QUIPS.

It appears to be an axiom regarding public officials that the less deeds the more words.-New York American. Doubtless congress has figured out some bandy place to spend the $1,000,-000 It proposes to save on government printing,-Detroit News.
